

ADJUSTMENT OF GAS AND ELECTRIC RATES)
OF LOUISVILLE GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY) CASE NO. 10064

On December 28, 1987, Sister Visitor Center and Inter-religious Coalition for Human Services, Inc., filed a joint motion to intervene on behalf of low income households who are unable to pay their utility bills. On January 15, 1988, the motion was amended to clarify that the above-named persons were not requesting status as a distinct group of intervenors but desired to be joined as named parties to the previously authorized intervention of low income representatives referred to as the Residential Intervenors.

Based on the amended motion and good cause shown, the Commission is of the opinion and hereby GRANTS the Sister Visitor Center and Interreligious Coalition for Human Services, Inc., status as named parties to the intervention of the Residential Intervenors.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky this 21st day of January, 1988.
